

Month-At-A-Glance November

November 7

Election Day — Vote and Eat!

Vote at our polling station and buy something at the student leadership bake sale.

November 8 3:30-4:00

Science Olympiad Organizational Meeting

For students interested in becoming members of the Science Olympiad Team with science teacher extraordinaire Elaine Clark. Parents welcome.

November 9 5:00-6:00

Dream Team Playground Meeting

Participate in developing a future recreation area for the school.

November 9 6:00-7:00

Family Village Meeting — Grades 7 & 8

Learn about your child's mathematics program from the math teachers.

November 10

Gina Bachauer Pianist — Justin Kolb

Judson's music students attend a guest performance at the Unitarian Church.

November 13

SMARTS Outreach — Linda Smith

The education director from Reparatory Dance Theater provides an enrichment lecture and workshop for students before they attend an RDT performance. Part of the Seasoned Mentors of the Arts (SMARTS) partnership.

November 14

Science Field Trip — Grade 8

Intrepid science teacher Jeni White takes 8th graders to the Museum of Natural History.

November 15

SMARTS Outreach — Chris Lino

Artistic director of the Pioneer Theater Company holds a pre-show discussion of Pride and Prejudice. Part of the Seasoned Mentors of the Arts (SMARTS) partnership.

November 15

Pride and Prejudice — Grades 5 & 6

Reparatory Dance Theater — Grades 7 & 8

Students attend these performances.

November 21

Science Field Trip — Grade 8

Jeni White and 8th grade students visit the Chase Mill at Liberty Park to view the juried collection of the Energy Flow in Ecosystems artwork.

November 22

Thanksgiving Break

School dismisses at 12:40 AM for Thanksgiving break. School resumes November 27.